DEAD MAN LEAVES FAMILY-JURY SECURED.

Just a State Masons have taken an juterests in the prosecution of James H. Wade, according to a statement made yesterday by a prominent Celestal. He said Lee You, the native of the Flowery Kingdom who was shot and instantly killed by Wade in the boarding house of an Alta mine, was a Mason, having joined the order before he came to this country from China.

From other sources it was learned that You was a married man, with a wife and two children in China. He was not well known among the resident Chinamen. You had not been a resident of the city or state many months before the fatal tragedy, and was of such a retiring disposition that he was not in the habit of mingling freely with his fellow countrymen.

For some time You was associated with a cousin in the laundry business on Second South street. They had their shop just west of the Dooly block. About a year ago, or less, the cousin returned to China. You, who was a good cook, then sought employment in the kitchen, as it paid him better.

salt Lake county Sunday schools part in the prosecution, it is said they have placed evidence in the hands of the state, through other parties, which is to be used against Wade when the actual trial begins Monday morning.

The Chinese contingent at the trial yesterday was augmented by two women, who took the characteristic Chimese stolid interest in the final proceedings attendant upon the securing of the last three men constituting the pury. The women did not take kindly to the interest their presence aroused and spent a portion of the atternoon in the corridor or the fourth floor. The progress of the jury selection was imparted to them by Chinese men, who came from the court room occasionally and told them what was going on in the inside.

The jury in the case was secured about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, The last three men eelected and sworn, who made the twelve, were C. E. Offersback, Adolph Bergen and William J. Backman. When they had been sworn the information charging Wade with murder in the first degree was read, also the plea entered by the man to the accusation. It was then suggested by counsel that a recess be taken until 16 o'clock Monday morning, which was agreed to by Judge Charles
